

Admission Process

Each application is considered individually. GENIUS International School of Singapore has an open admissions policy, and the admissions assessment will consider ability to access the curriculum through language, behavior among peers, and additional learning needs. These are placement assessment to give an indication of performance level and language ability, and are not academic entrance tests. They support our placement of students in a way that ensures classes are diverse across gender, language, national status, and additional learning needs.

Step 1: Enquiry	Complete the Enquiry Form (available from the Admissions office).
Step 2: Placement Assessment	All students must undergo a Placement Assessment before enrollment is made. (Placement Assessment Fee: USD50) After assessment you will be contacted within 48 hours if we can offer a place.
Step 3: Acceptance of Application	Once a place is offered, you should confirm you accept within 1 week. Complete the Enrollment Form including payment of the Enrollment, Admin & Materials fees, and providing all the relevant documents requested by Admissions office.
Step 4: Enrollment and Payment	All school fees must be paid in full before any child can start school.
